

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background of the Research

Emotional expression is an important part of controlling emotions in humans. Emotional expression refers to how one conveys emotional experience through both verbal and non verbal behaviour (Gross, 1999). All humans being have emotions such as angry, happy, love fear and sadness. Emotion is also a strong feeling which has a relationship another people.

Furthermore, emotional expression can be also found in a movie, novel, short story, and lyric music. Emotions are an important aspect of human life with the presence of human interactions that are more nuanced. The people will give the different emotional expression to someone and the emotions can be positive and negative. Emotions are instance feelings that are directed at someone or something Hume (2010).

In this research, the writer chooses love and happiness expression which included in the positive emotional state. First, the writer focuses on love and expression in a relationship context meaning. Second, the writer also analyze happiness expression and the writer can more easily analyze emotional expression in a movie. The writer wants the reader understand differences of love and happiness to expressed in a movie.

Love expression is something that can be said as a feeling of intense affection in a relationship. According to Baron, Branscombe, Byrne & Bhardawaj (2010) love is an emotional reaction that seems as basic as anger, sadness, happiness, and fear. Love is a constellation of emotion and experiences related to a sense of strong affection or profound oneness. Love has a distinct place in Izard, (1991), he viewed love as basic to the human condition, as involving strong, affectionately based social attachments to be full of interest and enjoy. Love as significant emotion of human can be expressed by literal and non literal. Literal has a way that love is expressed by using the words directly. Non literal means using words of figurative of speech or known as figurative language.

The expression of happiness can be found in The Stolen Princess movie. Happiness is highly valued in present-day society. The expression of happiness is used to express feeling when are successful to do something. According to Ekman & Fiesen (2003), happiness is the emotion most people want to situations in which you will experiences happiness. Happiness is feeling good, having fun, having a good time or making the good experience (Aristotle's in Yuda 2016).

The movie is a concern with the daily life condition. The movie can make people enjoy and interested in watching that. Through the movies, people get inspiration, ideas, knowledge, learn new things and many other things. The writer can also gives information of basic emotions such as love, angry, happy, fear, sad, and many expressions .

The writer is interested in starting analyzing the data because this movie has so many emotional expressions in conversation and it can see facial expression directly using of the main character. The writer analysis of love and happiess expressions found in “The Stolen Princes “ movie. This will be an exploration of how emotions work in the main character on The Stolen Princess. The new movie of Disney is a series to adapted from Animation, Comedy, Fantasy. Directed by Malamuzh and release on March 07, 2018. This movie tells about the happiness of beautiful princesses and Valiant Knights. Ruslan a wandering artist, and dreaming to become a knight met beautiful Mila and fell in love with her; he didn’t even suspect that she is the king’s daughter. However, the relationship between they . Chernomor, the evil sorcerer, the appeared in the magic vortex and stolen Mila right before Ruslan’s eyes to transform her power of love into his own magic power. Finally, Ruslan’s starts to go a chase after The Stolen Princess to overcome all obstacles and to provide that real life is stronger than magic. To support the explanation, the writer used the example of expressions in the movie as follow:

(1) Ruslan.. I love you : Meelah (Love expression)

Example (1) shows love expression of Meelah. The words to express love is “Ruslan.. I love you : Meelah” – shows she has falling in love in him, because he has proven his words to be able to find anywhere Meelah.

(2) I am very glad! : said Lestor (Happiness expression)

Based on the data above, the writer analyzes it as happiness expression. The utterance “I am very glad,”-shows the emotional expression of happiness. Lestor feels excited because Ruslan can be excited again to help Meelah. And his friends very glad to hear the good news.

1.2 Identification of The Problem

In the movie The Stolen Princess, the writer found linguistic aspect that can be analyzed such emotional expression and figurative language in the data. On this happiness expression it can be found in every day and while the expression of love can be more contrasted when someone falls in love. Emotion is found in literal words, a non-literal and figurative language in The Stolen Princess Movie. The love and happiness expression can be seen on novel, lyric, poetry, movie and short story. The writer analyzes expression found in the movie used word, types, and expression.

1.3 Limitation of The Problem

In this research, the writer just focuses to analyze about words and types of express love and happiness in emotional expression found the movie The Stolen Princess. This research analyzes emotional expression just verbal communication from the words and utterances of the actors in the movie. The writer just focus in literal, non-literal words and also discuss about context that influence the expressions. The writer limits the expressions that discussed in this research is only love and happiness to be the data analysis.

1.4 Formulation of The Research

In this research, the writer formulates some research questions:

1. What are the words used to express of love and happiness in The Stolen Princess movie?
2. What are the type of love and happiness expression found in The Stolen Princess movie?

1.5 Purpose of the Research

The purposes of the research are:

1. To explain what are the words to express of love and happiness in The Stolen Princess movie.
2. To describe the type of love and happiness expression found in the movie The Stolen Princess.

1.6 Significant of The Research

The writer hopes this research gives a new knowledge for the reader about emotional expression especially love and happiness expression in The Stolen Princess movie. The writer also gives information about kinds of love and happiness expression on this a movie. The writer wants the reader understand how are emotional expression and context to influence in love and happiness expression.