AN ANALYSIS OF ANGER EXPRESSIONS IN THE CONJURING 2 MOVIE

Teguh Kurniawan¹, Temmy Thamrin², Nova Rina³

¹Student of English Department, Faculty of Humanities, Bung Hatta University
E-mail: tkurniawan009@gmail.com

²Lecturer of English Department, Faculty of Humanities, Bung Hatta University

ABSTRACT

The research study is used to analyze anger expression in the “The Conjuring 2” movie. Anger expression do not only occur in a daily conversation, but also in the dialogue found in a movie. The purpose of this research are to find classification the anger expression according to Parrot (2001) in a movie written by James Wan. The Conjuring 2 is one of the interesting subject to be analyzed in anger expression. The movie tells about paranormal investigators tries to interact with the spirit and there is way in anger expression. Thus, the purpose this research are (1) to describe what are the classification of anger expression. (2) to describe the types of anger expressed in The Conjuring 2 movie. This research used descriptive qualitative research. It is done by collecting data, analyzing data that is a anger expression from of utterances uttered by the characters, giving explanations and drawing conclusion in The Conjuring 2 movie. Finally the researcher find out two points, the first point is the writer find 4 classifications from 6 classifications based Parrot. The writer found 16 dialogues contained in 4 classification of anger. The second, point the writer found 3 types of anger. They are aggressive, passive, assertive.

Keywords: Anger Expressions, Classification of Anger Expressions, Type of Anger Expressions.