ABSTRACT

PT Mutualplus Global Resources in the use of outsourced labor must provide legal protection to workers who have been terminated unilaterally by their clients, this is contained in Article 35 paragraph (3) of the Manpower Act. The problems of this research are: 1) What is the responsibility of PT. Mutualplus Global Resources in using outsourcing labor services at BKE Bank? 2) What is Legal Protection for outsourced workers at PT Mutualplus Global Resources? 3) What is the resolution of a dispute if there is a default by one of the parties? This study used a socio-legal approach. The data used include primary data and secondary data. Primary data were obtained through interviews and document studies. From this study it can be concluded that: 1) Legal protection of PT. Mutualplus Global Resources in the use of outsourced labor services at the BKE Bank of Padang towards termination of employment there is no responsibility in the form of compensation provided, there is only social responsibility 2) Legal Protection for outsourced workers in the form of old age insurance provided after 3 (three) months of work 3) Efforts that can be taken by the parties in the event of default, namely holding deliberations / negotiations.
