5.2 Suggestions

Based on the result of the research, the researcher wants to give some suggestions for students and lecturers. For the students, they need to improve their ability in writing, especially for writing an exposition paragraph by doing some exercises, being more selective in choosing the right vocabulary, give much attention to grammatical rules, and the mechanic using on the text to make their ability better than before. The researcher wants the students to read many books to add their knowledge so that the students wouldn’t be stuck again in brainstorm their ideas and improvement of themselves.

For lecturers, the researcher hopes they could give more exercises to students to make their ability more increasingly in writing an exposition paragraph and build up their understanding about the important things such as grammatical rules and the mechanic use. The researcher also hopes for many exercises that the lectures gave to the students, it would help them in improving their ideas in writing especially for writing an exposition paragraph.
